Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 12, 2017, Genworth Financial, Inc. (the “Company” or “Genworth”) issued a press release announcing the Board of Directors set December 13, 2017 as the date of the 2017 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company (the “2017 Annual Meeting”) that will be held if the previously announced merger transaction contemplated under the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated October 21, 2016, by and among the Company, Asia Pacific Global Capital Co., Ltd., a limited liability company incorporated in the People’s Republic of China (“Parent”) and a subsidiary of China Oceanwide Holdings Group Co., Ltd. (“Oceanwide”), and Asia Pacific Global Capital USA Corporation, a Delaware corporation and an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, is not completed by such date. In the event the proposed merger is not completed by December 13, 2017, the 2017 Annual Meeting will be at 9:00 a.m. local time at The Westin Richmond, 6631 West Broad Street, Richmond, Virginia 23230. Holders of record of the Company’s Class A common stock on October 20, 2017 will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the 2017 Annual Meeting.

The 2017 Annual Meeting has been scheduled to ensure that the Company remains in compliance with the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange, which require each listed issuer to hold an annual meeting of stockholders no later than one year after the end of the issuer’s most recently completed fiscal year in the event that the merger transaction is not completed prior to December 31, 2017 and the Company continues to be a listed issuer on the New York Stock Exchange at that time.

Because the date of the 2017 Annual Meeting is more than 30 days from the anniversary of Genworth’s 2016 annual meeting of stockholders, the Company has set a new deadline for the receipt of stockholder proposals submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), for inclusion in the Company’s proxy materials for the 2017 Annual Meeting. To be considered for inclusion, such proposals must be received in writing by Genworth before the close of business on October 4, 2017. Stockholder proposals must also comply with the applicable requirements of Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act regarding the inclusion of proposals in a public company’s proxy materials. The deadline to determine whether notice of a stockholder proposal is timely for purposes of exercising discretionary voting authority with respect to proxies under Rule 14a-4(c)(1) of the Exchange Act is also October 4, 2017.

In addition, Genworth’s bylaws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to director nominations and other business proposals stockholders intend to be presented at the 2017 Annual Meeting outside of Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act. For these nominations or other business proposals to be properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must deliver written notice to Genworth not later than the close of business on September 22, 2017. Such nominations and other business proposals must comply with all requirements set forth in the Company’s bylaws.

All notices of intention to present director nominations or other business proposals at the 2017 Annual Meeting, whether or not intended to be included in Genworth’s proxy materials, should be addressed to: Corporate Secretary, Genworth Financial, Inc., 6620 West Broad Street, Richmond, Virginia 23230.

A copy of the press release announcing the date of the 2017 Annual Meeting and the deadline for stockholder nominations and proposals is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Forward-looking statements are based on management’s current expectations and assumptions, which are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Actual outcomes and results may differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements and factors that may cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, risks and uncertainties related to: (i) the risk that the proposed merger with Oceanwide may not be completed in a timely manner or at all, which may adversely affect Genworth’s business and the price of Genworth’s common stock; (ii) the ability of the parties to obtain regulatory approvals, or the possibility that regulatory approvals may further delay the transaction or will not be received prior to November 30, 2017 (and either or both of the parties may not be willing to further waive their end date termination rights beyond November 30, 2017) or that materially burdensome or adverse regulatory conditions may be imposed in connection with any such regulatory approvals (including those conditions that either or both of the parties may be unwilling to accept); (iii) the risk that a condition to closing of the transaction may not be satisfied; (iv) potential legal proceedings that may be instituted against Genworth in connection with the transaction; (v) the risk that the proposed transaction disrupts Genworth’s current plans and operations as a result of the consummation of the transaction; (vi) potential adverse reactions or changes to Genworth’s business relationships with clients, employees, suppliers or other parties or other business uncertainties during the pendency of the transaction, including but not limited to such changes that could affect Genworth’s financial performance; (vii) certain restrictions during the pendency of the transaction that may impact Genworth’s ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions; (viii) continued availability of capital and financing to Genworth before the consummation of the transaction; (ix) further rating agency actions and downgrades in Genworth’s financial strength ratings; (x) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (xi) Genworth’s ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the transaction; (xii) the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and other charges related to the transaction; (xiii) the risks related to diverting management’s attention from Genworth’s ongoing business operations; (xiv) the impact of changes in interest rates and political instability; and (xv) other risks and uncertainties described in the Definitive Proxy Statement, filed with the SEC on January 25, 2017, and Genworth’s Annual Report on Form 10-K, filed with the SEC on February 27, 2017. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Genworth’s consolidated financial condition, results of operations, credit rating or liquidity. Accordingly, forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing Genworth’s views as of any subsequent date, and Genworth does not undertake any obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date they were made, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required under applicable securities laws.
